

Outdoor Recess

Recess programs help students develop physically and socially while providing an important energy release. Whenever possible, recess will be held outside. Parents should provide appropriate clothing (coats, hats, mittens, scarves) for children for use on chilly days. Names should be on all items of clothing.

Teachers will explain the playground rules to the students. These rules are expected to be followed.